

Rally to Celebrate Our Birmingham!

Monday 24th May at 8.00am
Victoria Square, Birmingham

On Monday 24th May the fascist British National Party will be coming to the centre of Birmingham to spread their racist lies and sow division.

They are demonstrating because they think teachers should have the right to spread racist and Islamophobic material on the internet from the schools where they are paid to teach.

We believe our schools should be places of tolerance and learning, not ignorance and hatred. That is why Unite Against Fascism is calling this peaceful rally to celebrate our diverse city and show the BNP they are not welcome here.

So come along on Monday and sign the Unity Statement today!

Birmingham is a great multicultural city whose diversity is one of its greatest strengths. Our children, in particular, are free to mix and learn with others from many backgrounds, enriching all our lives and making us a stronger society.

On Monday 24th May there is a threat that the fascist British National Party will again demonstrate in the centre of Birmingham in support of a member who is appearing before the General Teaching Council. They will be coming to our city to spread their racist lies and sow division.

They claim they are here to protect free speech. Nothing could be further from the truth. They are coming to Birmingham to protest and disrupt because they think teachers should have the right to spread racist and Islamophobic material on the internet from the schools where they are paid to teach.

We believe our schools should be places of tolerance and learning, not ignorance and hatred. In the recent elections the BNP were soundly rejected in nearly every seat that they previously held or threatened to take.

That is why we want to make it clear to the BNP that we are the majority. We are from all communities, from trade unions, from all faiths and none. We love our city, we love our diversity, and they are not welcome here.
